

I'm totally against the proposed changes for regulating the FCC. We need more diversity in the media; not more monopoly of the airwaves, newspapers, TV stations. The people own the airwaves and we want access to many points of view in order to understand what's going on and to make intelligent decisions on our own.